1st Grade Teaching Position at Saints Simon & Jude Catholic School

Saints Simon & Jude is currently accepting applications for the position of 1st Grade General Education teacher for the 2023-2024 school year. The candidate will be expected to provide in person instruction to 1st grade students.

Responsibilities and Duties:

- Engage all learners and successfully manage a classroom environment
- Connect daily student learning to real-world problems and situations
- Implement common core curriculum utilizing research-based instructional strategies and methods
- Analyze student data to ensure that the learning objectives of the course meet the unique, diverse, and ever-changing needs of the students
- Work collaboratively with other elementary and resource faculty to create a rigorous and differentiated instruction that challenges and is supportive of the students
- Perform the duties of a teacher in accordance with the current policies as outlined in the Employee Handbook of the Diocese including but not limited to: weekly lesson plans, curriculum mapping, online grade book, and parent communication.
- Maintain a safe and welcoming learning environment for all learners
- Adhere to the policies and procedures of the Diocesan Employee Handbook and the Saints Simon & Jude Faculty and Staff Handbook.

Requirements:

- Responsible for attending school-sponsored events, department/faculty meetings, professional development training and required contract days (190).
- Responsible for attending the Diocese of Orange New Teacher Orientation in August 2023.
- Participate in the Emmaus Institute certification program

Qualifications:

- BA/BS from an accredited college or university.
- Valid teaching credential - multiple subject or single subject Minimum of two years teaching preferred
- A Catholic in good standing with the Roman Catholic Church.
- Strong set of interpersonal, verbal communication and written communication skills with a history of working collaboratively with others in a school setting.