

MATH TEACHING POSITIONS AT ROSARY ACADEMY

Rosary Academy is looking for an enthusiastic math teacher. We are looking for someone who enjoys working with high school students and their families. Applicants should have the ability to participate in teamwork and shared decision-making, have excellent oral and written communicative skills and are proficient in technology. Experienced teachers are preferred. A preferred candidate must teach a broad range of math classes including but not limited to Algebra I & II, Geometry, Pre-calculus, Calculus, AP Calculus AB/BC. Preference will be given to someone with training and/or experience in AP and technology integration in the classroom.

Responsibilities and Duties: Teaching:

- Work collaboratively with all stakeholders to create an academically rigorous, college-going culture that is both challenging and supportive of students
- Implement AP Curriculum that utilize challenges students research-based instructional strategies and methods
- Engage all learners and successfully manage a classroom environment
- Connect daily student learning to real-world problems and situations in the math field
- Plan and implement a program of instruction that adheres to the goals and objectives outlined in the course curriculum and agreed to by department members.
- Teach students the required curriculum using strategies that foster critical thinking, reasoning and problem-solving skills
- Facilitate student learning by supplementing regular curriculum materials with a variety of instructional aides and activities
- Excellent interpersonal communication skills – both in writing and as a speaker
- Proficiency in the development of curriculum at the secondary level
- Participate in trainings and program development during the summer and throughout the year
- Attend and participate in after-school school and department meetings, events, and Professional Development during the summer or school year

Qualifications:

- B.A./B.S. in Math with Advanced Placement experience and/or training or Masters' in Mathematics
- California Credential in Mathematics
- Must be flexible and patient with students; able to present complex content in a variety of ways
- Willingness and desire to teach students who might be reluctant learners
- Strong affinity for hands-on teaching and learning
- Motivation to engage all students, especially reluctant learners
- Willingness to teach STEM and AP content

Salary Range is $47,000 - $80,000 based on years of experience and placement on diocesan pay scale.