

Rosary Academy
Religion Teacher

Description

Rosary Academy is looking for an enthusiastic qualified teacher to teach courses in high school Religion. The ideal candidate for this position would be an individual who is faithful to the teachings of the magisterium of the Catholic Church in all aspects of his or her life and who possesses skills and experience that would enable him or her to flourish as both a theology teacher and role model for high school aged students. We are looking for a teacher who enjoys working with high school students and their families. Applicants should have the ability to participate in teamwork and shared decision-making, have excellent oral and written communicative skills and are proficient in technology. Experienced teachers are preferred.

Qualifications

Teacher must have a Masters' degree in Theology or related field from a Catholic institution or possess a Diocesan Catechist or Master Catechist Certificate. Teacher must model all behaviors outlined in both the Faculty Handbook and the Employee Handbook for lay personnel of the Diocese of Orange.

ESSENTIAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES include the following. Other duties may be assigned.

- Facilitate instruction in Religion courses
- Planning, preparing, and delivering lessons to all students in class
- Support our goal to use language immersion in classrooms and in related individual learning plans, projects and presentations.
- Assessing, recoding and reporting on the development, progress, attainment, and behaviors of one's students
- Candidates should be interested in the social and developmental needs of students, and be able to contribute to extracurricular activities.
- Develops and uses instructional material suitable for verbal and/or visual instruction of students with wide range of mental physical and emotional maturity.
- Plan and implement a program of instruction that adheres to the goals and objectives outlined in the course curriculum and agreed to by department members.
- Teach students the required curriculum using strategies that foster critical thinking, reasoning and problem-solving skills
- Facilitate student learning by supplementing regular curriculum materials with a variety of instructional aides and activities
- Participating in department retreats, in-service education and training courses
- Excellent interpersonal communication skills – both in writing and as a speaker
- Proficiency in the development of curriculum at the secondary level

Rosary Academy
Religion Teacher

Qualifications:

- Masters' degree in Theology preferred or Diocesan Catechist Certificate
- Must be flexible and patient with students; able to present complex content in a variety of ways
- Willingness and desire to teach students who might be reluctant learners
- Strong affinity for hands-on teaching and learning
- Motivation to engage all students, especially reluctant learners

Work Schedule: Full time, benefit eligible position

- 10-month employee

Compensation: Based on diocesan teacher pay scale

Range starting at $50,820 and up based on years of experience and degrees